Remuneration Committee – Terms of reference (Adopted by the Board on 27 August 2019)

The board of directors (the “Board”) of Pujiang International Group Limited (浦江國際集團有限公司) (the “Company”, which together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) has established a committee of the Board known as the Remuneration Committee (the “Remuneration Committee”) with its constitution and particular duties set out below:

1. Membership

- 1.1 The Remuneration Committee shall be appointed by the Board.
- 1.2 The majority of Remuneration Committee members shall be independent non-executive directors of the Company.
- 1.3 The Board shall appoint the chairman of the Remuneration Committee. The chairman must be an independent non-executive director of the Company.
- 1.4 The term of each appointment to the Remuneration Committee shall be determined by the Board upon appointment.

2. Secretary

The Remuneration Committee may appoint any person with appropriate qualification and experience to act as the secretary of the Remuneration Committee.

3. Meetings

- 3.1 At least one meeting will be held each year.
- 3.2 Unless otherwise agreed or waived, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date shall be sent to each member of the Remuneration Committee, and to any other person required to attend in relation to all regular meetings of the Remuneration Committee, at least 14 days before the date of the meeting; and in relation to continued meetings held within 14 days, no prior notice is required. Notwithstanding the notification period, the attendance of the member of the Remuneration Committee at the meeting would deem to be treated as the waiver of the required notification requirement.
- 3.3 The quorum of the Remuneration Committee meeting shall be two members, one of whom must be an independent non-executive director.
- 3.4 The members of the Remuneration Committee may attend meetings either in person, by telephone or through other electronic means of communication (which are available to all attended parties).
- 3.5 Resolutions of the Remuneration Committee shall be passed with a simple majority of votes.
- 3.6 Resolutions signed by all members of the Remuneration Committee will be treated valid as if it is passed in the meeting held by the Remuneration Committee.
- 3.7 Minutes of the Remuneration Committee meetings shall be kept by the secretary of the Remuneration Committee and shall be available for inspection by any member of the Remuneration Committee and/or any director of the Company at any reasonable time on reasonable notice. Draft and final versions of minutes of Remuneration Committee meetings shall be sent to all Remuneration Committee members for their comments and records within a reasonable time after the meeting. Once they are agreed, the secretary of the Remuneration Committee shall circulate the minutes and reports of the Remuneration Committee to all members of the Board.

4. Attendance of meetings

4.1 Upon invitation by the Remuneration Committee, the chairman of the Board and/or the general manager or the chief executive, external consultant and other Board members may attend all or any of the meetings.

4.2 Only the Remuneration Committee members shall have the voting powers.

5. Annual general meetings

The chairman of the Remuneration Committee shall attend the annual general meetings of the Company and be prepared to respond to any shareholder questions on the Remuneration Committee's activities. If the chairman of the Remuneration Committee is unable to attend, a member of the Remuneration Committee (who must be an independent non-executive director) shall attend the annual general meeting of the Company. Such person shall be prepared to respond to any shareholder questions on the Remuneration Committee's activities.

6. Duties and responsibilities

The duties and responsibilities of the Remuneration Committee shall be:

6.1 to make recommendations to the Board on the Company's policy and structure for all directors and senior management remuneration and on the establishment of a formal and transparent procedure for developing remuneration policy;

6.2 to review and approve the management's remuneration proposals with reference to the Board's corporate goals and objectives;

6.3 either:

(a) to determine, with delegated responsibility, the remuneration packages of individual executive directors and senior management; or

(b) to make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration packages of individual executive directors and senior management.

This should include benefits in kind, pension rights and compensation payments, including any compensation payable for loss or termination of their office or appointment;

- 6.4 to make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration of non-executive directors;
- 6.5 to consider salaries paid by comparable companies, time commitment and responsibilities and employment conditions elsewhere in the Group;
- 6.6 to review and approve compensation payable to executive directors and senior management for any loss or termination of office or appointment to ensure that it is consistent with contractual terms and is otherwise fair and not excessive;
- 6.7 to review and approve compensation arrangements relating to dismissal or removal of directors for misconduct to ensure that they are consistent with contractual terms and are otherwise reasonable and appropriate; and
- 6.8 to ensure that no director or any of his/her associates is involved in deciding his/her own remuneration.

7. Reporting responsibilities

- 7.1 After each meeting, the Remuneration Committee shall report formally to the Board on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.
- 7.2 The Remuneration Committee should make available these terms of reference by including them on the Stock Exchange's website and the Company's website.
- 7.3 The Company should disclose details of any remuneration payable to members of senior management by band in its annual reports.

8. Authority

- 8.1 The Remuneration Committee shall consult the chairman and/or the general manager or the chief executive of the Company about their proposals relating to the remuneration of other executive directors.
- 8.2 The Remuneration Committee is authorised by the Board when necessary to seek any remuneration information it requires from senior management of the Company to order to perform its duties.

8.3 The Remuneration Committee is authorised by the Board when necessary to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice in connection with its duties at the Company's expense.

Note: All such arrangements of obtaining outside legal or other independent professional advice may be made by any member of the Remuneration Committee or any person authorized by the Remuneration Committee.

8.4 The Remuneration Committee shall have access to sufficient resources in order to perform its duties.

“Senior management” refers to the same category of persons as referred to in the Company’s annual report. It is the responsibility of the directors of the Company to determine which individual or individuals constitute senior management. Senior management may include directors of subsidiaries, heads of divisions, departments or other operating units within the Group as, in the opinion of the directors, is appropriate.
